As a first step, we need to confirm your shareholding(s). You have two options to do this:

Option 1 – Social Security Number

You must be a current U.S resident. You are able to use your Social Security Number to confirm your shareholding.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This option means you may have to go through our online identity verification process and if successful you will have immediate access to your portfolio.

Option 2 – Holder Account Number

You are able to use your Holder Account Number to confirm your shareholding if you live outside the U.S., or you do not wish to use your Social Security Number.

IMPORTANT NOTE: This option means you may not have immediate access to your portfolio. If you aren't eligible for our online identity verification process, you may need to wait for a verification code to be sent to you via postal mail.
